

The Herald and News.

A Visiting Minister.

Rev. R. E. McDaniel, Pittsburg, Pa., is in the city. He is an able and prominent Lutheran minister, and will preach at Colony next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and at the Mayer Memorial next Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. We hope the congregations of these churches will turn out to hear Dr. McDaniel.

At the First Baptist Church

Special services will be held at the First Baptist church next week, beginning on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and continue through the week, conducted by Rev. L. M. Roper, of Spartanburg. Two services will be held daily at the hours of 11 a. m., and 8:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Men Will Be Boys.

In the excitement of a lively exercise like boat-racing or ball-playing, they will strain their muscles and go home limping and sore. Then they are glad they have Perry Davis' Painkiller on hand to soothe the quivering nerves; to penetrate the muscles with warmth and healing power. It has relieved the pain of two generations of Americans. Large bottles for 25 and 50 cents.

A Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our most heartfelt appreciation of the kindness of neighbors and friends, and of the untiring services of the doctors in the last illness of our mother, Mrs. Rosa Lovonia Cannon. We appreciate these deeds of kindness and of love more than words can tell, and we can only assure these friends that their services will not be forgotten by us. Her Children.

No Loss of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning. H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by W. E. Pelham & Son.

Exposition Tickets.

Wagner Day will undoubtedly be the biggest day of the great show—the Charleston Exposition, and we have been requested to state to all Newberrians that Wagner Day tickets have been left at the Commercial Bank of this city for sale. If you are thinking of going to the Exposition next week, call at the Commercial Bank and get a ticket. We hear of many people going from here next week.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops. Jesse Pinkney Hall, Springville, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by W. E. Pelham & Son.

Tournament Called Off.

The Excelsior Fire Company had decided to enter and had gone into practice for the Charleston Firemen's Tournament, which was to be held on the 27th and 28th of this month, but on application for rules and prize list, were informed by the Chief of Fire Department of Charleston yesterday, that the tournament had been called off. Our firemen regret this, but will meet the boys at Sumter in June and be in better shape to take the championship of the State.

Won't Follow Advice After Paying For It.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When the medicines are mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by W. E. Pelham & Son.

Newberrians Honored.

At the meeting of the Grand Lodge Independent Order Odd Fellows held in Charleston this week, Mr. J. Marion Davis, Superintendent of the Newberry Cotton Mill, was elected Grand Master of the State.

Mr. J. E. Crosby, who resided here at one time, and who is now superintendent of the Walhalla cotton mill, was elected Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the United States.

At this meeting C. L. Bleas, Esq., a member of Pulaski Lodge, on behalf of the Grand Lodge of the State and of the Rebecca Lodge, presented to Deputy Grand Sire, Jno. B. Goodin, of Georgia, with a beautiful and appropriately engraved gold-headed walking cane.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Camp Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervousness, loss of sleep and constant fatigue I had about utterly collapsed. I seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-around medicine I ever found over a druggist's counter. It worked, run-down men and weak women gain splendid health and energy from Electric Bitters. Try Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists."

VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

The railroads are doing a good business these days—and all roads seem to be leading to Charleston.

The Hartford School, Miss Maggie Johnstone teacher, will give a picnic on Saturday the 24th inst., at Hartford Academy.

We are indebted to Prof. D. R. Riser for an invitation to attend the closing exercises of the Ninety-Six High School from the 25th to the 27th inst.

Mr. R. J. Miller states in his advertisement that his restaurant will remain open through the summer and that meals will be furnished at all hours.

Many of our citizens are arranging to go to Charleston next Tuesday, and if we can judge from what we hear, next week will be Newberry week at the Exposition.

Sheriff Buford requests us to state that the delinquent tax list has been placed in his hands for collection, and wishes all delinquents to come forward at once and settle their taxes.

Drs. D. L. Booser, D. L. Booser, Jr., Theo. Johnstone and E. C. Jones, of Newberry, and Dr. E. N. Kibler, of Prosperity, are attending the State Dental Association in Charleston this week.

Rev. O. A. Darby, of Columbia, will preach in the Central Methodist Church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Herbert, the pastor, is absent conducting a protracted meeting at Dillon, S. C.

We publish in another column six newly adopted ordinances by the city council. Many of our people will be glad to know that one of them is intended to put a stop to the habit of spitting on sidewalks.

There is some talk of one of our enterprising business men erecting a skyscraper in Newberry at an early date on a lot convenient to the public square. The story to be appropriately arranged and to be known as Masonic Temple. So mote it be.

Personal.

Maj. L. W. C. Bialock, of Goldville, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Malinda Higgins has returned home after a very pleasant visit in Laurens.

Mrs. Hollingsworth, of Augusta, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Booser.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Gormantown, Cal. "I was able to be around, but constantly suffering. I tried everything I could hear of and last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by W. E. Pelham & Son.

Trinity Item.

Mr. Editor: Will you please allow me a small space in your excellent paper that I may return a few words of thanks to the kind people of Trinity?

Having very reluctantly decided to give up music teaching for a short while, I accepted the Trinity school for this term, and will say I have never taught anywhere that I have enjoyed the literary work more than here. And in severing my connection with this school, it is with sadness and regret that I take leave of the children, who have endeared themselves to me; and a feeling of deep gratitude for every kindness that has been shown me. I can assure them when I have returned to my Georgia home not one of my South Carolina friends will ever be forgotten. And whoever may teach at Trinity school I can assure them of a warm, true-hearted people by my own stay among them.

I sincerely thank them for the kindness they have always shown to this little Georgia girl.

THE JUNIOR ORDER.

A Most Delightful Ice Cream Festival Enjoyed by the Juniors and their Friends.

It was the writer's privilege to be one of the invited guests at the ice cream festival given by the Junior Order United American Mechanics at Klettner's Hall last Monday night.

The large hall had been prettily decorated with bunting and flags, and the tables prettily arranged with flowers and decorated cakes, all of which presented a most enticing scene.

The refreshments were served by the members themselves in a most happy manner, and to the sufficiency of every one present.

It was an enjoyable occasion, made so much the more so, by the presence of the wives, sisters, mothers and sweethearts of the members of the order, and it was indeed a pleasure to be present.

The programme of the evening closed with short talks by different members of the order and their friends, and many left with a clearer view and a broader conception of the objects and purposes of the Junior Order.

It was certainly well to be there.

Brave and Generous

A. P. Butler is Dead.

AT THE FRONT IN SIXTY-ONE AND AGAIN IN SEVENTY-SIX.

As Commissioner of Agriculture He Did Much for South Carolina though Unappreciated by Politicians.

[Special to The State.]

Augusta, Ga., May 14.—Col. Andrew Pickens Butler of Aiken County died at 9 o'clock this morning at the Butler home. Col. Butler was stricken with paralysis of the heart Saturday night. He never regained consciousness. He was 70 years old. He leaves two daughters, who are married, a son and several grand children. The funeral will be tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock from Sweetwater church, near Aiken.

Col. Andrew Pickens Butler was a member of the famous old Edgfield family which came from Virginia prior to the Revolution. He was distantly related to Gen. M. C. Butler. He was a man of conspicuous gallantry. When the war between the States broke out he went to the front as captain of Company G, First South Carolina. He was promoted to major May 12, 1864, and to lieutenant colonel May 23d of the same year. He was a dashing and fearless officer.

Col. Butler's service to the State in the Hamburg and Ellenton riots, particularly the latter, were conspicuous for discretion and gallantry. He was jailed by the Federal authorities, but even from the jail managed to keep his friends from bloodshed on his account.

After serving his country in the State Senate and for several years was State commissioner of agriculture, continuing in that office until the department was abolished in 1890. Col. Butler did the State good service in this capacity, but the department over which he presided bore the brunt of the Tillman reform movement fight. Col. Butler's personal remarks to the present Senator Tillman during the memorable '90 campaign were a feature of that stirring period.

Since 1890 Col. Butler has been living quietly at his plantation on the South Carolina side of the Savannah river, not far from Augusta.
